Delhi Technological University

"75 years of Tradition of excellence in Engineering & Technology Education, Research and Innovations" Delhi College of Engineering came into existence in the year 1941 to cater the needs of Indian industries for trained technical manpower with practical experience and sound theoretical knowledge. The institution was set up at historic Kashmere Gate campus as a follow up of the Wood and Abott Committee of 1938. It comprised of a multi disciplinary and multi level institution offering wide ranging programmes in engineering, technology, arts and sculpture, architecture, pharmacy and commerce. The national diploma awarded by the institution was recognized as equivalent to degree level for the purposes of employment. In 1952 the college was affiliated with University of Delhi and started formal Degree level Programmes. Till 1962, the college was under the direct control of Ministry of Education, Government of India. In 1963, the administration of the college was handed over to Delhi Administration. Delhi College of Engineering was under the administrative control of Department of Technical Education & Training, Govt. of NCT of Delhi. For academic purposes, the college was affiliated to University of Delhi since 1952. From July 2009, the DCE has become Delhi Technological University vide Delhi act 6 of 2009.

Arrival in Delhi

- ▶ Arriving at the Airport: You will be arriving at the Indira Gandhi International Airport, Delhi.
- ▶ Currency Exchange: You will need Indian currency (~INR 600) for local transportation from the Airport to Delhi Technological University. Please have your currency exchanged to Indian Rupees.
- ▶ Hiring a Taxi: You can hire a pre-paid taxi from one of the booths at the Airport. For an easy conversation with the taxi drivers, check the common Hindi phrases at the end of this guide.
- ▶ Weather: Remember that the weather in Delhi at this time of the year is very hot and humid. Please wear clothes accordingly. Wear a cap during day time! Carry a bottle of water with yourself.
- ▶ After Arrival: On arriving at DTU, contact the assigned co-ordinator who will help you with your on-campus accommodation.
- ▶ Registration with the UG/PG Section: The next day after your arrival, please register yourself and complete the paper-work at the UG/PG Section

Local Transport in Delhi

- ▶ Delhi Metro: The Delhi Metro is a safe, comfortable and the most well-connected means of transport in Delhi. You could catch a metro train from any of the metro stations and travel to various parts of Delhi.
- ▶ Buses: There are many buses run by the Delhi Transportation Corporation (DTC) which connect different places across Delhi. The red ones are AC and the green ones are non-AC.
- ▶ Taxis: You could also hire taxis for local transport.
- ▶ Auto-Rickshaws and e-Rickshaws: These are the most easily available means of transport for short-distance travelling in Delhi. There is an auto-rickshaw stand very close to the main gate of DTU from which you could catch one of these!
